Andrew's practice focuses on civil litigation, appeals, and public entity law.

Civil Litigation + Appeals

Andrew represents individuals and businesses in state and federal court litigation, appeals, as well as arbitration. These disputes concern, for example, bad-faith breach of insurance contract, breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duty, commercial leases, construction, deceptive trade practices, easements, employment agreements, fraud, insurance coverage, negligence, noncompetition or nonsolicitation agreements, mechanic's liens, misappropriation of trade secrets, trusts and estates, and wrongful termination. Before joining BHGR, Andrew served as a law clerk and judicial assistant to Chief Justice Brian D. Boatright of the Colorado Supreme Court.

Public Entity Law

Andrew represents cities, counties, home rule municipalities, towns, special districts, and their employees in state and federal court litigation as well as appeals. These disputes concern, for example, affordable housing, elections, the First Amendment, land use, recalls, term limits, and zoning.
