Brent is a trusted, sole-source legal provider for his intellectual property clients across a variety of industries and technical disciplines.

Brent's Core Practices

Patent + Trademark | Litigation + Arbitration

Brent's practice focuses on patent and trademark filings and related litigation. He also manages diverse patent and trademark portfolios for his corporate clients in the United States and around the world.

Patent + Trademark

Brent represents mid-size companies, Fortune 500 companies, and Global Fortune 500 Companies in all aspects of intellectual property law. He has written more than 500 patents and prosecuted more 1000 U.S. and foreign patents. He assists his clients with the following: patent preparation and prosecution; trademark preparation, strategies, and filings; transfer of domestic and international patent and trademark rights; licensing; and freedom to operate, non-infringement, and invalidity opinions. Brent also manages his clients' IP portfolios worldwide. He has specific technological experience in the mechanical, electrical, and computer-related fields, addressing a broad range of technologies and inventions such as AI, singular devices, integrated solutions, network systems, applications, cloud-based systems, medical, dental, and veterinary equipment, pet toys and devices, and industrial equipment and machines.

Litigation + Arbitration

Brent represents clients in mediation and arbitration, as well as in litigation in state and federal courts. He enforces and defends all intellectual property rights in these forums, including patents, trademarks, trade secrets, trade dress, and unfair competition claims.

Relevant Work Experience

Prior to becoming an attorney, Brent served as an engineer in the United States Army Corps of Engineers and Army Reserve. After leaving the military, he worked for Merck Pharmaceuticals and then later became a registered patent agent.
