BHGR

Katherine Carter

Attorney

Associate

katherine.carter@bhgrlaw.com

Katherine's law practice focuses on water and conservation matters, as well as general civil litigation.

Water + Conservation

Katherine works with BHGR's Water and Conservation Group, assisting clients with water due diligence matters, applications for new water rights, changes of water rights, plans for augmentation, water quality issues, and other water and conservation matters.

General Civil Litigation

Katherine also works with BHGR's Civil Litigation Group, which represents plaintiffs and defendants in state and federal courts in a variety of cases, including those concerning breach of contract, business disputes, commercial leases, water rights, construction, and real estate.

Education

J.D., University of Colorado Law School

In law school, Katherine served as managing editor of the Colorado Environmental Law Journal, served as a Getches-Wilkinson Center board liaison for the Environmental Law Society, and externed for Western Resource Advocates researching climate policy and transmission planning regulations.

B.A., University of Virginia

Admissions

- Colorado

Related Practices

- Water + Conservation
- Litigation

Associations + Boards

Boulder County Bar Association

Colorado Bar Association

WildEarth Guardian, Board Member (2026 –)

Out + About

Katherine grew up in Canberra, Australia and loves staying active. Outside of the office, you'll find her at CrossFit, hiking with her cattle dog, skiing, and sharpening her photography skills.